An area bounded by the localities of Pospitz, Burgkennitz, Muldenstein and Rossdorf and measuring 1.2 x 1 x 1.7 kilometers has been requisitioned for the construction of barracks. A branch railway line has been built from the Muldenstein railroad station to the construction site. The Muldenstein power station, which had been demolished, has now been rebuilt and supplies the electric power for the project. Engineer units from Leipzig are engaged in excavations at the site.
